

From: paul impola
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/23/02 5:34pm
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

The proposed settlement of the Microsoft antitrust case is a very bad idea, which would in the long run actually strengthen Microsoft. I firmly believe that the only fair settlement would require Microsoft to release the code of its Windows operating system. This course would have immediate major benefits for all users of Microsoft products, and would restore competition to the OS and browser fields. Thank you for reading my message.

Paul Impola